Section 1: Identification of Potential Conflicts of Interest

In order to be considered for participation as a survey liaison for the Minnesota Ag Retail Survey, all applicants must declare any potential conflicts of interest for review. An applicant may have a conflict of interest if he or she, or a member of his or her immediate family: (1) has been an employee or client of a Nutrient Service Provider (NSP) within the past 5 years; (2) has a commercial interest in the NSP or products of the NSP to be surveyed; (3) has acted as a consultant to an NSP in any capacity; (4) has received any gift of other compensation of significant value (value > $50) from an NSP or its agent.

Section 2: Conflict of Interest Statement

Please detail any potential conflicts of interest that might relate to work in the capacity of a survey liaison for the Minnesota Ag Retail Survey:

Are you currently, or have you ever held one of the following designations: Certified Crop Adviser (CCA), USDA-NRCS Comprehensive Nutrient Management Plan (CNMP) Specialist, other relevant accreditation from the American Society of Agronomy or National Alliance of Independent Crop Consultants?

a) If so, please identify which one, explain your history with the position, and describe any relationships with NSPs:
